WHY WE'RE THE EXPLORERS

La Salle University's nickname — The Explorers — was erroneously bestowed by a sports writer covering a La Salle football game (La Salle played intercollegiate football from 1931-41) on campus sometime during the '30s. He thought that the school was named after the famed French explorer of North America.

In reality, the school was named after St. John Baptist de La Salle, the French educator and founder of the Christian Brothers. Despite the error, the nickname has remained.

William "Speedy" Morris

Leading La Salle to more wins than any other coach, William "Speedy" Morris enters his 14th season in charge of the Explorers' men's basketball team.

Morris gained his 200th win with the men's program on January 27, 1998 in a 72-68 victory at Virginia Tech. He became the sixth Philadelphia Big Five coach to reach that mark.

The 16th coach at La Salle, Morris enters this season with a 215-169 (.561) record, but including his stint as La Salle women's coach (43-17) and high school boys' coach (388-96), his overall coaching mark is 646-282 (.696).

Hired at La Salle in 1984 as the first full-time women's coach, Morris recorded the highest winning percentage (.717) of La Salle women's coaches. After two seasons, he was named the Explorers' men's coach and became the first coach in NCAA Division I history to go from head coach of a women's program to the same position in a men's program.

Morris has guided La Salle into the NCAA Tournament four times (1992, 1990, 1989, 1988) and twice into the NIT (1991, 1987), including a runner-up finish in 1986-87, his first season. In his first six seasons as men's coach, the Explorers qualified for a postseason berth. While the Explorers were members of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, the team won the tournament title four times and were co-champions in the regular season another time.

Over the years, Morris has received many honors. Twice he won or shared the MAAC Coach of the Year award. He was also named the 1989 and 1990 District 3 Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and was voted the Eastern Coach of the Year in 1990. He was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year three times by the Philadelphia B'nai B'rith Sports Lodge. In September 1995, Morris was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

The 1990 NCAA Tournament victory over Southern Mississippi in Hartford on March 15 was Morris' 100th as La Salle's men's coach. Only three other Division I coaches have won 100 games in their first four seasons — current Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim, North Carolina State's legendary coach of the '40s and early '50s, Everett Case, and Roy Williams of Kansas, who achieved the mark after Morris.

The 1989-90 campaign was a historical highlight for La Salle. In addition to posting the school's best-ever 30-2 record (29-1 during the regular-season), La Salle ran off 22 consecutive victories, a school record, going from Jan. 6 through a 79-75 loss to Clemson in the NCAA Tournament on March 17 without a loss.

In 1991-92, Morris led La Salle to its sixth straight post-season appearance and its fourth Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) and NCAA appearance in five years. The Explorers' exciting last-second victory over Manhattan in the MAAC final and their heart-breaking, two-point loss to Seton Hall in the NCAA Tournament were two of college basketball's most-watched games during March Madness.

While the women's coach, Morris took the Explorers to the NCAA Tournament in 1985-86, after winning the MAAC title, and finished the season with a 21-9 record.

Speedy Morris has won more games than any other coach in La Salle basketball history.

William "Speedy" Morris

HOW MORRIS BECAME SPEEDY

There may be different theories as to how "Speedy" Morris acquired his nickname, but here is the answer, directly from the source.

"I was in seventh grade and on the grammar school team at St. John's in Manayunk. We had a little gym that also served as a cafeteria. Before we could practice, we'd have to move the tables away.

"It didn't take me long to figure out that if I came a little late for practice, I wouldn't have to help move the tables. Pretty soon, Gerry Boyle, our coach, caught on and made me do 100 laps around the gym, which isn't as bad as it sounds, since that gym would make Roman Catholic's gym (where he used to coach) look like the Palestra.

"Anyhow, along about the 25th lap, I started to go slowly, which wasn't too far from the speed I had been going. Anyhow, Gerry started yelling, 'C'mon, Speedy, let's get going' and that name has stuck ever since."

Which, when you think about it, is ironic, because the coach that Speedy, who wasn't so speedy, succeeded at La Salle, Lefty Ervin, wasn't lefthanded, either.

LaSalle Coaching Staff

Roland Houston

The distance between Martin Luther King High in Philadelphia to La Salle University is approximately five miles. It took Roland Houston 17 years to make the trip.

Houston, who joined Speedy Morris' Explorer staff in mid-September, has done quite a bit of traveling since his high school graduation in 1982. That travel took him to the University of Rhode Island, and such overseas basketball stops as Nice, LeMans and Limoges, all in France, then on to Spain, Argentina and Israel.

Among his most memorable visits was to Limoges, where he caught up with an old friend and rival, former La Salle and West Catholic High great Michael Brooks, who still maintains residence in France.

"Michael and I had played against each other and with each other a good while back in Philadelphia and it was great being with him and competing with and against him," Houston said.

When he enrolled at Rhode Island, his coach was Jack Kraft, who had coached Villanova to 11 post-season tournaments before heading to New England.

"I was the first player coach Kraft took from Philadelphia," the 39-year-old Houston said, "and I still try to stay in touch with him since he's not too far away down in Stone Harbor (New Jersey)."

At Rhode Island, in what was then called the Eastern 8 before becoming the Atlantic 10, Houston played four seasons, started for three and was captain in his senior year. But all of his time wasn't taken up with hoops. As a communication major, he wrote for the school newspaper, produced jazz shows and did an occasional stint on the campus station.

While overseas, he got a taste of coaching and the business side of basketball, so when he returned to the United States, he was prepared for life after playing. He became involved in several ventures, including acting as a consultant for NBA players and would-be NBA players. But he always had his eyes on getting into coaching full tilt and that's where he is now, working with Morris, fellow assistants Jim Phillips and John Gallagher, and administrative assistant Rich Prendergast.

Born in South Philadelphia, Houston transferred from Southern High to Martin Luther King early in his career and continued on his journey which has now taken him, wife Lisa and two-year-old daughter Zuri to La Salle University.

Jim Phillips

Jim Phillips, a La Salle University student basketball manager from 1990-91 to 1993-94 under head coach "Speedy" Morris, is in his second year as an assistant coach on Morris' staff.

Since graduating from La Salle with a B.S. in business in 1994, Phillips has coached in the college and high school ranks as well as conducting camps and clinics in the off-season. He served one year as an assistant at Clarion (PA) University, working under head coach Ron Righter, a former St. Joseph's University standout.

Phillips returned to The William Penn Charter School, his high school alma mater, and for three years was assistant varsity and head junior varsity coach under Bill Gallagher.

He also has been a teacher in Philadelphia and its suburbs. For two years, he taught at the Warren G. Harding Middle School in the Philadelphia Public School system and later was a mathematics teacher at The Woodlynne School in Stratford, PA.

With Gallagher, Phillips has conducted numerous summer basketball camps and clinics and managed grade school tournaments. He has coached in the prestigious D'Onofrio Classic in Conshohocken, PA, a post-season tournament involving some of the East's outstanding high school performers, taking his team to the 1997 championship game.

Known to many as "Flip," he played three years at Penn Charter in the Inter-Academic League, captaining the team in 1989-90. Phillips, son of Kathy and Doug Phillips, is single and lives in Northeast Philadelphia.

Coaching Staff

John Gallagher

John Gallagher is in his first season with the Explorers as an assistant coach. The youngest assistant coach in Division I NCAA men's basketball at 22, Gallagher brings plenty of experience despite his age.

Gallagher had served as Director of Main Line Basketball for the Sonny Hill League for two years and coached in the high school league. He was also the creator and founder of the Delaware Valley Elite AAU Program.

In his playing days, John was a guard on the St. Joseph's University Hawks for three years. He was a member of their magical Sweet 16 run in the NCAA Tournament and played against top-ranked Kentucky in the tourney. John was also a starter for three years at Cardinal O'Hara High School where he earned All City Honorable Mention and All Catholic Honors his senior year.

With his addition to the La Salle staff, Gallagher becomes the first of a basketball-wealthy family to join the coaching ranks. John's sister, Ann, was a point guard for the Explorers from 1993 to 1997 and his eldest sister, Kathleen, teaches in the history department at La Salle. His other sister, Joan, was a four-year starter for the Boston College Eagles.

Rich Prendergast

The men's basketball administrative assistant, Prendergast is in his 16th year as a volunteer to Speedy Morris' La Salle University teams. Prendergast has coached in the Philadelphia Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) and in the Catholic League high school system.

Before joining the La Salle women's staff under Morris, Prendergast directed the girls' team at Philadelphia's Hallahan High to two playoff berths in four seasons.

In 1986, Prendergast was honored with the Mary S. O'Connor Loyalty Award for dedication and service to the La Salle women's intercollegiate athletic programs. The award was named after the university's first Women's Director of Athletics.

Prendergast, a 1960 La Salle graduate, lives in Stone Harbor, N.J. His family includes wife Jane and four daughters — two of whom, Maria and Catharine, are La Salle graduates. Lori lives in Clarksville, TN and the youngest, Colleen, is a junior at La Salle.

Prendergast is owner of ICS, a full-service direct mail production company in Philadelphia.

Rich Prendergast has been Speedy Morris' right hand man at LaSalle University for 16 years, including two with the women's team.

LaSalle Atlantic 10 Conference

The foundation of the Atlantic 10 Conference's ascension to national prominence is solidified with an unwavering dedication to providing a broad-based, competitive athletic environment without sacrificing the high ideals of scholarship and sportsmanship. The University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of Rhode Island, St. Bonaventure University, St. Joseph's University, Temple University, Virginia Tech, and Xavier University offer a rich blend of proud academic and athletic traditions to form an impressive athletic alliance.

"The Atlantic 10 continues to prosper through our members' firm commitment to their student-athletes and to the future of the Conference," says commissioner Linda Bruno, who has helped guide the Conference to prestige unparalleled in league history. "Each of our programs is dedicated to achieving the proper balance of excellence in both the classroom and on the playing field. The Atlantic 10 is proud of the accomplishments of our student-athletes but will continue to strive for even greater success."

The success the Atlantic 10 enjoyed last year was highlighted by the league placing five teams in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament for the second time in as many years, with Rhode Island advancing to within 30 seconds of the Final Four. A league record five men's basketball teams were ranked at one time or another last year. Three women's basketball teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the tenth time.

Additional highlights include the Massachusetts softball team advancing to the Women's College World Series for the third time since 1992, and the women's rowing team placing fourth in the NCAAs.

Success in each of its championship sports has been the hallmark of the Atlantic 10 Conference and that was reinforced this past year with 20 teams and 17 individuals earning berths to postseason competition. All told, 249 teams have represented the Atlantic 10 Conference in postseason play since the 1976-77 season.

Atlantic 10 student-athletes excel in the classroom as well. The Atlantic 10 sponsors several academic awards programs, including Academic All-Conference teams in each of its championship sports and the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which honored an Atlantic 10 record 1,384 student-athletes with a 3.0 grade point average or better this past year. The league also cites a male and female Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and awards a pair of postgraduate scholarships to both male and female student-athletes who express a desire to continue their education.

On June 14, 1994, Linda Bruno was officially introduced as the Atlantic 10's fourth commissioner. As commissioner, Bruno has strengthened the Atlantic 10's membership with the additions of Dayton, Fordham, La Salle, and Virginia Tech, thus assuring the Conference's future. Bruno also negotiated a six-year television deal with ESPN/Creative Sports - the most lucrative and broad-based package in league history - which translates into the greatest amount of exposure ever for the Atlantic 10's athletic programs. She relocated the league office to Philadelphia, placing it in the center of the Atlantic 10's geographic footprint.

Under her leadership the Atlantic 10 has increased its championship schedule to 22 sports with the additions of women's rowing, men's and women's outdoor track & field, and women's lacrosse, beginning this year. Bruno also spearheaded the league's entrance into Division I football with the formation of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference in 1997. In addition, in an effort to recognize the athletic and academic achievements of all student-athletes, Bruno instituted the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.0 gpa or better.

The Atlantic 10 Conference will crown champions in 22 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's gymnastics, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

LaSalle 68 Years of Excellence

Did you know that, in its 68 official seasons of intercollegiate basketball:

• 19 La Salle players have made it to the National Basketball Association, including first-round draft picks in Tom Gola, Lionel Simmons, Randy Woods, Ken Durrett, Larry Cannon, Michael Brooks and Joe Bryant?

• Three of those were named the NCAA Division I National Player of the Year — Gola in 1954, Brooks in 1980 and Simmons in 1990? Lionel Simmons is the third all-time leading Division I scorer with 3,217 points, and is one of four Explorers to surpass 2,000 points and one of 39 to go over 1,000?

• Thirteen of those players have reached 1,000 in the last 10 years?

• When the 1999-2000 season opened, two Explorers were in the NBA — Overton and Tim Legler — each of whom received their degrees from La Salle within four years?

• There are at least 15 others playing professionally in the United States, Europe and Japan?

• Including an NCAA championship in 1954 and a National Invitation Tournament title in 1952, La Salle has made 22 postseason appearances, 11 in the NCAA and 11 in the NIT?

• In 1987, the Explorers advanced to the championship game of the NIT in New York's Madison Square Garden?

• La Salle is one of only 15 teams which have won both postseason tournaments?

• In coach "Speedy" Morris' 13 years, La Salle has won eight in-season tournaments, while playing in such locales as Hawaii (twice), Japan, New Orleans, Texas, California, Arizona and San Juan, Puerto Rico?

• When La Salle won its 1,000th game in 1992, it became the team with the fewest number of seasons (62) to reach that total?

• In coach Morris' 13 years, La Salle has been in six postseason tournaments (four NCAA, two NIT) and, in 1989-90, posted the school's all-time best record, 29-1 in regular season play and 1-1 in the NCAA Tournament? Its 30-2 overall record was the best in the NCAA Division I? Its 22-game winning streak is the school's best ever?

Lionel Simmons is one of three Explorers to rank among the top 25 all-time scorers in NCAA history. Simmons is third with 3,217 points.

• In 1999-2000, while playing in the Atlantic 10 Conference, the Explorers are scheduled to appear on national and local TV a total of eight times?

• And if you check out all the major conferences, La Salle has played teams from all of them and has at least one victory over a team in every major conference?

• During the past 13 seasons under "Speedy" Morris, the La Salle Explorers men's teams have:

1) graduated 37 of the 37 seniors in the basketball program;

2) had two first-team Academic All-Americans (Tim Legler, '88; Jack Hurd, '92);

3) been to six postseason tourneys; four NCAA, two NIT, including the National Invitation Tournament championship game in 1987;

4) had four players in the NBA (all of whom graduated in four years) — Tim Legler '88, Lionel Simmons '90, Doug Overton '91, and Randy Woods '92;

5) have won 19 championships, eight regular season tourney titles; four first-place titles, four league postseason championships and three Philadelphia Big 5 titles;

6) have compiled a postseason record of 18 victories and 12 losses;

7) in his 15 seasons at La Salle (including two as women's coach) he has won 258 games, an average of 17.5 wins a season.

TOM GOLA
1954 Player of the Year

Tom Gola, plain and simple, put La Salle basketball on the map. Widely regarded as the premier college player of his time, Gola led the Explorers to the 1952 NIT and 1954 NCAA Championships. A scorer both inside and outside, he averaged 20.9 points and 19.0 rebounds in his four-year career. A three-time collegiate All-American, Gola played in the NBA with the Philadelphia and San Francisco Warriors and New York Knicks and was named All-Pro five times. Gola added to his La Salle glory as head coach of the 1968-69 Explorers who finished 23-1 and was the second ranked team in the nation.

A spectacular combination of strength and grace highlighted Brooks' play as did his intelligence on the court. La Salle Beats Bradley 92-76 For NCAA Title
Explorers Wrap Up Game With 30-Point 3rd Period; 2 Scoring Marks Broken

By Bob Vetrone
Of The Bulletin Sports Staff

Kansas City, Mo., March 20 — La Salle College, playing by far its greatest game of a long and successful season, roared to a 92-76 victory over Bradley tonight to bring Philadelphia its first NCAA basketball championship.

The Explorers, receiving sparkling performance from about a half dozen of its players, used a devastating 30-point third quarter to reach the highest pinnacle any local team has approached. Tom Gola, Charley Singley, Frank Blatcher, Fran O'Malley, Frank O'Hara — all took important parts in the triumph, which was turned into a runaway by that prolific third quarter.

In rolling to its 92-point total, La Salle broke the record for points in a championship game. The combined pointage of 168 also set a new record for the tourney final.

LA SALLE The 1952 NIT Champions

Gola, Grekin MVPs as La Salle Tops Dayton To Win NIT Championship

In the early days of post-season basketball tournaments - in the late 1930s through the middle '50s - the National Invitation Tournament was at least on a par with, and perhaps superior to, the still-emerging NCAA Tournament. So, when the La Salle Explorers romped through Seton Hall, St. John's, Duquesne and Dayton to capture the 1952 championship, it was a feat of national basketball importance.

La Salle, coached by future Hall of Famer Ken Loeffler, had entered the NIT as an unseeded team and had to get by Seton Hall's powerful Pirates, led by seven-footer Walter Dukes and an exceptional guard in Richie Regan. But La Salle freshman Tom Gola and junior Fred Iehle hit for 30 and 25 points respectively, with Iehle pouring in 20 in the first half.

Gola had 19 rebounds and six assists and junior Norm Grekin grabbed 15 boards. In a game that was described as one of the best in the NIT's 14-year history, the margin was never more than four points, as a capacity crowd of 18,422 wildly cheered on both teams in New York's old Madison Square Garden

In the quarter-finals, Grekin, playing his way toward a share of tournament MVP honors with Gola, tallied 17 points and had 16 rebounds in a 51-45 victory over local favorite St. John's. And Grekin again played a big role in the 59-46 romp over the Sihugo Green-led Duquesne Dukes, rated by many as the top team in the tournament. Grekin had 21 points and 10 rebounds, Gola contributed 14 rebounds and 10 points and sophomore Jackie Moore added 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Then came the championship game against a tall and talented Dayton Flyers team, and it was no contest. Led by Gola, Iehle and playmaking captain Buddy Donnelly, the Explorers built a 38-30 half-time lead, then wrapped up the title with a 37-34 second-half advantage. Grekin, Gola and Moore were named to the All-Tournament team, and the Olympic Trials were just ahead.

At that time, the Olympic squad was picked from team trials rather than individuals as is done today. In those Trials, La Salle again defeated St. John's, 71-62, but bowed to Clyde Lovellette and the Kansas Jayhawks, 70-65, and fell before the Phillips Oilers, an AAU powerhouse.

Between the NIT and the Olympic Trials, the team, the school and the City of Philadelphia received notice from all around the country. And coach Loeffler had this praise for the team in an article that appeared in the La Salle Collegian:

"This was a new team, a young team, like a child in fact. It first had to walk. As any child would, it fell a few times. It gradually learned to walk, then to run. Against Seton Hall, it found it could jump as well as run."

And Ken could have added: "All the way to a national championship."

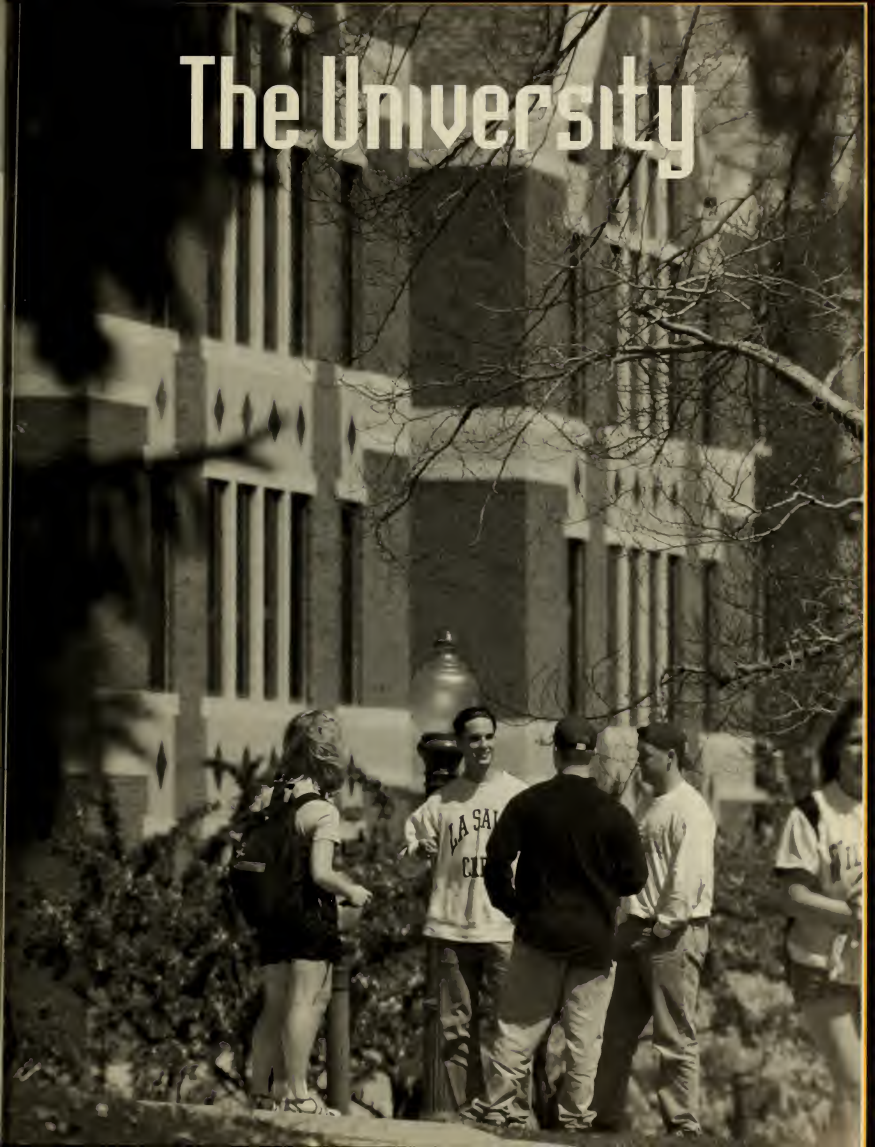
The University



LaSalle The University

La Salle University is a liberal arts institution that combines the best of all educational worlds. With approximately 3,100 undergraduates and nearly another 3,000 graduate students attending classes, the University offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social and historic centers.

Founded by the Christian Brothers in 1863, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de La Salle, the patron saint of teaching. Starting as a one building academy in center city Philadelphia, La Salle is now a 110-acre campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section, six miles from Center City.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers some 400, and the University offers nearly 50 programs of study. With a student-faculty ratio of 14-to-1 and an average class size of 20, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' approach to education.

La Salle's curriculum requires the completion of 120 credits, but allows wide flexibility in choosing courses. A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving eight to 10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor/dual major or to diversify one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend either their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, while receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a semester or a year of study in Spain.

Among the major buildings on campus are: the Connelly Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Science, Geology and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building, and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Center, a building which underwent a $6.3 million renovation. Thomas Brennan

Athletics Director

Dr. Thomas Brennan has ushered in a new era in La Salle Athletics that began when he became the school's fifth Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation on September 18, 1997.

He guides the school's 23-sport Division I athletic program as the university enters its fifth season in the Atlantic 10 Conference, and as football enters its third season since its revival, and first in the MAAC Football League. Dr. Brennan was instrumental in facilitating the return of the Explorer basketball teams to their full-time home court at the renovated Tom Gola Arena in the Hayman Center. The project increased seating capacity from 1,000 to 4,000.

"La Salle has proven to be successful in the Atlantic 10, and I am excited to lead the department into the next millennium," Brennan said. "You must have integrity in your program, you must have a program which emphasizes the educational mission of athletics. You must also strive for excellence in the athletic arena. I know that these are all important at La Salle and that is what attracted me."

Since coming to La Salle, Brennan has reorganized many areas within the Athletic Department, including the formation of the Explorer Club, a fundraising/booster group made up of staff, alumni and friends. He has guided the school's entrance into the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Football League.

Brennan has also provided needed leadership in Fund Development and Outreach activities. During his tenure, the Tom Gola Arena has been dedicated, the Alumni Hall of Athletes area has been renovated and the Athletic Sponsorship and Corporate Partners Program has been introduced. He has contributed to the revival of the Philadelphia Big 5 Basketball Program and has established a highly formal Youth Outreach and Community Service program.

Under Brennan's guidance, La Salle was selected as one of only 20 schools that have been selected, by the NCAA, to participate in a national program with the Big Brothers/Big Sisters Organization (Campus Pals). Brennan is a member of the Executive Committee for the Philadelphia Sports Congress and has served as the chair for the Atlantic 10 Conference Post-Graduate Scholarship committee, the Women's Basketball committee, and the Student-Athlete Advisory Council.

Brennan was the Athletic Director at San Jose State University from 1990-97, moving the school from the Big West Conference to the Western Athletic Conference. During his administration, graduation rates for student-athletes more than doubled, participation by women in intercollegiate athletics nearly doubled, and the university was recognized for Title IX compliance efforts by the Office of Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education. In addition, annual athletic contributions increased three-fold, while $6 million was raised for a new field house and administrative complex.

Prior to being the Athletic Director at San Jose, Brennan was the Director of Athletics at Loyola College in Maryland from 1986-90. During that time, Brennan successfully moved Loyola from the Northeast Conference into the MAAC. The Greyhounds became national contenders in men's and women's lacrosse and men's soccer. Loyola placed the men's basketball games on a commercial radio and television network for the first time ever. While at Loyola, Brennan was a member of the Board of Directors for the Maryland Special Olympics.

From 1980-86, Brennan worked at the University of New Mexico, first as Assistant Athletics Director and then Associate Athletics Director for Advancement. At the time of his departure, he oversaw the fundraising, media relations, sponsorship, marketing, sales and athletic alumni efforts. Part of his duties included establishing a statewide radio and television network. Prior to that, he oversaw the NCAA compliance program for the school and handled the academic support area of the department. Brennan also earned a faculty position in the school's Graduate Program in Athletic Administration.

His athletic administration career began at Syracuse University, where he was Academic Coordinator for the athletic department, serving as a liaison with the school's central administration, deans, department heads and coaches. Syracuse was recognized at the time by the NCAA as having one of the top 10 student-athlete graduation rates in the country.

A 1973 graduate of LeMoyne College in Syracuse, NY, Brennan went on to earn Master's and Doctoral degrees in Higher Education Administration from Syracuse University. A native of Brooklyn, NY, Brennan and his wife Ellen are the parents of Maggie (11), Tim (9), and Kate (5).

Tom Brennan is entering his third year as Director of Athletics.
